Student Organizations Seeking Recognition
October 20, 2005

University of Richmond Rock Climbing Club
Purpose: The University of Richmond Rock Climbing Club is committed to providing a safe environment for students to participate in healthy activities and develop their rock climbing skills. The Club accomplishes its mission by ensuring that members receive instruction, facilitating opportunities for students to climb, and arranging climbing trips.

Acting President: Gabriel Anderson
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Robert Miller, Chemistry

Club Golf
Purpose: Golf Club is committed to promoting a close-knit team community in a competitive yet fun environment on and off the golf course. The organization accomplishes its mission through the organization of team practices, meetings, and competitive matches.

Contacts: Scott Weir, Alex Leukart
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Wade Downey, Chemistry

Richmond Entrepreneurs’ Organization
Purpose: The Entrepreneurs’ Club is committed to educating, supporting, and encouraging students interested in entrepreneurship. The organization accomplishes its mission by providing resources and developing relationships between students, faculty, alumni, and the local business community.

Contact: Chad Doerrmann
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Harold Babb, Marketing

The Minority Report
Purpose: The Minority Report will generate awareness across the University on issues that are of significance to the minority community. This mission will be accomplished by providing access to the concerns and interests of the minority students on campus, highlighting various student achievements and endeavors, and providing a means for the voices of the underrepresented to be heard. Minority are defined as any individuals who feel marginalized by their race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, or perspective.

Contact: Stephanie R. Chandler
Faculty Advisor: Mr. Lee Carleton

University of Richmond Triathlon Club
Purpose: The University of Richmond Triathlon Club is committed to providing an opportunity for multi-sport athletes at Richmond to train and compete together in an effort to realize their full athletic potential. The organization will accomplish this mission by arranging opportunities to compete against other collegiate athletes in and around the mid-Atlantic region and provide educational opportunities via seminars and traveling to relevant events such as races, scenic bike rides, conventions, etc.

Acting President: Clint Anderson
Staff Advisor: Dan Fabian