Student Organization Seeking Recognition
March 15, 2005

Americans for an Informed Democracy (AID)

The UR AID Chapter, serving the University of Richmond, is committed to raise global awareness on campus. UR AID fulfills its mission by coordinating town hall meetings on America’s role in issues of global importance. Through these efforts, AID seeks to build a new generation of globally conscious leaders who can shape an American foreign policy appropriate for our increasingly interdependent world.

Student Contact:  Elleni Ghebremicael
Advisor:  Dr. Paul McCartney, Visiting Assistant Professor of Political Science

Portfolio Management Group (PMG)

The purpose of the Portfolio Management Group is to educate its members about investing, the investment world, and the opportunities for investments through management of a portfolio of stocks and other investments.

Student Contact:  Kyle Jenke
Faculty Advisor: Al Fagan, Director of Software Instruction, RSB

Rich Productions

Rich Productions, serving the University of Richmond, is committed to providing opportunities for musical education to underprivileged Richmond youth. The organization accomplishes its mission by establishing a music recording environment and teaching curriculum, and working with local entities to promote the organization’s goals by encouraging talented youth.

Student Contact:  Max Bloom
Staff Advisor: Dr. Pat Schoknecht, Director of Teaching, Learning & Technology

Spanish and Latino Student Association (SALSA)

SALSA is committed to serving as a support system for Latino members of the University of Richmond community, to celebrate and promote diversity of different Latino cultures, and to promote active participation in the University’s diverse communities through service and action.

Student Contact:  Ricardo Rios
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Ed Larkin, Assistant Professor of English
Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC)

The SHAC, serving the University of Richmond, is committed to serving as a liaison between the campus community and the faculty, staff, and administration of the UR Health Center. SHAC aids in informing students of special health issues on campus and creating awareness of the general services offered by the Health Center. The efforts of the SHAC are geared towards improving the effectiveness of the Health Center and promoting healthy lifestyles among the student body.

Student Contact: Jenna Froelich
Staff Advisor: Dr. Lynne Deane, Medical Director

Student Knitting Society

The Student Knitting Society, serving the University of Richmond, is committed to contribute to the community through teaching and celebrating the art of knitting. The organization accomplishes its mission by increasing popularity and awareness of knitting and the knitting community, creating a creative and encouraging space for students to share in their knowledge of knitting.

Student Contact: Jason Tseng
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Jane Berry, Associate Professor Psychology

UR Club Gymnastics

The UR Gymnastics Club, serving the University of Richmond, is committed to providing students with the opportunity to begin and/or continue their love of gymnastics through recreation, practice, or competition.

Student Contact: Liz Gottbrecht
Staff Advisor: Carol Johnson, Wellness Director

Wild at Heart

Wild at Heart, serving the UR community, is committed to improving the quality of life, increasing the retention rate, strengthening overall student performance, and attracting prospective students to the University.

Student Contact: Justin Cross
Faculty Advisor: Dr. Harold Babb, Professor of Marketing

3/4/05