University of Richmond President’s Council
Purpose: The University of Richmond Presidents’ Council seeks to serve as a communication liaison among the school student governments (Jepson School, Law School Student Bar Association, Richmond College, Robins School of Business, School of Continuing Studies, and Westhampton College). The Council will communicate student government issues/business with one another in order to ensure support and understanding among all colleges. In addition, the Presidents’ Council will serve as a reporting body for student representatives selected/elected to serve on important University committees.

Administration Contact: Steve Bisese, Vice President, Student Development
Faculty Advisor: Steve Bisese, Vice President, Student Development

Nerf Combat Club
Purpose: The Nerf Combat Club is committed to providing students with a dry social entertainment outlet on the weekends. The organization accomplishes its mission by hosting bi-weekly Nerf battles open to all University students.

Student Contact: Caleb Routhier
Faculty Advisor: Don Forsyth, Professor, Leadership Studies

Badminton Club
Purpose: Though a popular sport among minority students, badminton is not commonly played on the Richmond campus. Therefore, the Badminton Club will introduce the sport to students by emphasizing its recreation and fitness benefits. Additionally, it is hoped that as teammates, students from different cultural backgrounds will be encouraged to communicate and create friendships.

Student Contacts: Shirley Leung, Anthony Phan
Faculty Advisor: Jean-Pierre Laurenceau-Medina, Associate Director, Office of Multicultural Affairs

Invisible Children
Purpose: The purpose of the University of Richmond chapter of Invisible Children is to promote understanding and compassion for the children of Uganda and to uphold the values, goals, and spirit that were the basis of the foundation of Invisible Children. This chapter will serve as a tool to raise awareness and empower the students of the University of Richmond campus to create real and lasting change for invisible children not just in Uganda, but all over the world.

Student Contact: Emily Bartle
Faculty Advisors: Michelle Hamm, Associate Professor, Biology; and Steve Bisese, Vice President, Student Development
Meditation Club
Purpose: The Meditation Club is committed to lowering student stress levels, promoting education about different cultures, and training students to meditate more deeply. The organization accomplishes its mission by encouraging physical fitness and flexibility, teaching topics related to or the aspects of meditation, and practicing the use of meditation principles.

Student Contact: Jerry Giordano
Faculty Advisor: Steve Addiss, Professor, Art History

Rock Climbing Club
Purpose: The Rock Climbing Club aims to organize and facilitate rock climbing outings to both outdoor areas and indoor climbing walls for University of Richmond students.
Contact: Matthew Castelli and Keith Forbes
Faculty/Staff Advisor: John O’Donnell, Student Activities