Student Organizations Seeking Recognition
May 11, 2009

Sub Par Productions
Purpose: Sub Par Productions shall serve the University of Richmond by committing to providing the University community with opportunities to experience all aspects of professional film production through the style of sketch comedy videos.

Student Contact: Mark Ferguson
Faculty Advisor: Johann Stegmeir, Assistant Professor of Theatre

UR Men for Change
Purpose: UR Men for Change values the education of all men, including but not limited to a positive image of masculinity, development and respect for individuality, brotherhood, service, scholarship, and support for an inclusive and diverse Richmond environment. The organization desires to redefine the Richmond man, transforming him into an individual who will embody this education by respecting self and others. UR Men for Change will work against prejudice, maltreatment of any individual, and intolerance for racial, gender, religious, and/or sexual orientation differences.

Student Contact: Warin Henry
Staff Advisor: Jean-Pierre Laurenceau-Medina, Associate Director, Office of Multicultural Affairs

University of Richmond Pipes and Drums
Purpose: The University of Richmond Pipes and Drums will provide the opportunity for University of Richmond students to learn how to play the bagpipes or drums by forming a performing ensemble and exposing the University community to Highland music and Celtic culture.

Student Contacts: Nathaniel Riehl, Paul Negrin
Faculty Advisor: Andy McGraw, Assistant Professor of Music

The Pool Club
Purpose: The Pool Club will encourage students from various backgrounds around campus to come together to socialize and relax after a stressful day. The Pool Club will endeavor to teach students to think through situations, utilize tact and finesse rather than force, and to meditate upon possible consequences of their actions.

Student Contact: David Hernandez
Staff Advisor: Jean-Pierre Laurenceau-Medina, Associate Director, Office of Multicultural Affairs

University of Richmond Student Chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery (ACM)
Purpose: The UR Chapter of the ACM is organized and will be operated exclusively for educational and scientific purposes to promote increased knowledge of and greater interest in the science, design, development, construction, languages, management and applications of modern computing; greater interest in computing and its applications; and serve as a means of communication between persons having an interest in computing. The Chapter, chartered by the ACM, will serve students at the University of Richmond and other interested persons in the Richmond community.

Student Contact: Erin Brady
Faculty Advisor: Barry Lawson, Associate Professor of Computer Science
