Alpha Kappa Psi
Purpose: This professional business fraternity is committed to being recognized as the premier developer of principled business leaders. The organization accomplishes its mission by promoting its core beliefs of knowledge, integrity, service, and unity.

Student Contact: Julie Kim
Faculty Advisor: Robert Nicholson, Associate Professor of Economics

UR Racquetballers
Purpose: The Racquetballers seek to enhance and improve the level of racquetball play between members, as well as spread the popularity of the sport to the broader population. Through various activities, this organization hopes to create new social connections among the student body through racquetball. UR Racquetballers will also collaborate with local and other racquetball organizations.

Student Contact: Christian Terlecki
Faculty Advisor: Carlos Valencia, Director of Technology, LAIS

Student Programming & Events Council (SPEC)
Purpose: The SPEC seeks to foster collaboration among the more than 200 recognized student groups at the University of Richmond in order to better serve the students’ interests, and connect with many of the prevailing goals of the University, primarily Principle V: Goal 2 of the Richmond Promise.

Student Contact: Nellie Jenkins
Staff Advisors: Alison Bartel Keller, Associate Director of Student Activities, and Steve Bisese, Vice President for Student Development

UR Quidditch
Purpose: UR Quidditch seeks to facilitate the play of the fantastical game of quidditch among students from both the University of Richmond and other schools with competitive quidditch teams.

Student Contact: Jessie Kelley
Faculty Advisor: Tom Mullen, Director of Public Affairs, Journalism

Students of Hip Hop
Purpose: This organization is dedicated to bringing the community together through music (specifically hip hop), and to connecting our community with others in the Richmond area to break beyond the “bubble.” The organization will host events, attend events in the area, give back to the community, and produce a monthly newsletter highlighting new artists, anticipated releases, latest fashion, etc.

Student Contact: Rebecca Knight
Faculty Advisor: David Esleck, Adjunct Professor of Music

Givology
Purpose: Givology is an on-line community and marketplace that connects individual donors with smaller educational community initiatives around the world. It provides a legitimized and transparent method of donating where potential donors can view schools, projects, and individual students in poorer countries and make a safe and informed donation.

Student Contact: Sarah Gordon
Staff Advisor: Joanita Senoga, Customer Service & Night Associate, Boatwright Library
